

fromthegut 2006!

A lot happens here but since everything we do is, at least so far, outside of any kind of established scene or media stream it's pretty easy to forget just how much this loose knit meta collective has done. So for the benefit of all the various people involved let's take a quick review of what the hell has gone on at from the gut in detroit for 2006.

greh holger, god and his bitches, matt demmon, charlie drahiem, split horizon, selector catalogue.

april: remerge 2 - random action last minute throw down blaerg, morningside excursion, dj paul b., selector catalogue, split horizon, two bit vision, aversion, dj greh holger, fun by heather, charlie draheim rager dj.

may: opposition party discordian society round up anti festival - probably the biggest thing we've ever done. it seemed like it would be a disaster but instead it was a success. huge spines, spacial collage, fliers, and good eating by heather. meeting of the minds by all involved...

the cult of divine audio (fri) - coordinating with us for the weekend, the division street classic.

life toward twilight, hive mind, baseck, god and his bitches, david anger, xanopticon, prometheus burning, cutups, m. kadath.

we are going to eat you (night #1 - sat) - groovy tunes and more usa broken beats folks chilling together than you can shake a stick at.
c64, belladonnakillz, cutups, selector catalogue, matt demmon, guitar solo.

we are going to eat you (night #2 - sun) - this was a killer party, everybody gettin down to some rad music. a solid block of excellent noises and a total smash.
baseck, redrot, prometheus burning, xanopticon, aversion, stas, blaerg, split horizon, saskrotch, mourningside excursion, dj greh, sky mall.

void the world,

once fascinated by the idea of a multitude of different but related ideas existing together and creating a generative space, something that could possibly be immune to deconstruction by media and control - We would talk about how the fragmentation of life could be seen not as the end of meaning but as a beginning, because it gives the opportunity to put the pieces back together.
